

Acacia melanoxylon
Blackwood Acacia

5250 Central Avenue
Centerville District

Approximate location on map.

Leaves have vertical veins,

Photo Taken: September 2010

CEN-2 TREE INFORMATION/September 2010

HEIGHT: 56 ft.

QUANTITY: 1

SPREAD: 75 ft.

NATIVE TO: Australia

DBH: 4 ft. 2 in.

LANDMARK DATE: March 17, 1972

The Blackwood Acacia is an evergreen tree that produces creamy-white flowers in early spring. A special feature of the Blackwood Acacia is the wood that is harvested for cabinets and decorative work in Australia.¹¹ It is located in the center of the 5.48 acre Holy Ghost Cemetery.