WELCOME LETTER

An Age Friendly City is a Livable City.

This Age-Friendly Action Plan is a living document that belongs to our community. While the City of Fremont's Senior Citizen's Commission is presenting this plan, the contents come from the voices of our older residents and from staff in all departments within the City of Fremont. It is a description of our current age-friendly status and a vision of how we want to guide our efforts into the near future.

We recognize that we live in an age-friendly city now; and that being age-friendly makes our city a better place for everyone to live. Fremont is full of older adults who contribute to civic life and help each other. We are fortunate to have a myriad of programs and services available for older adults and their family members. The City is spacious and our mild weather allows us to be outside all year.

We also recognize that more and more older adults are living here and it is our intention to guide, review and continuously improve our age-friendly efforts. Please enjoy reading this plan and share it with others.

AGE-FRIENDLY FRAMEWORK

In 2007, the World Health Organization published the WHO Global Age-Friendly Cities Guide, outlining domains of community life that impact adults age 55 years and older. In 2010 the Global Network of Age-Friendly Cities and Communities was developed to facilitate collaboration and idea exchange among cities working to better accommodate older residents. As of 2020, there are Age Friendly communities in 41 countries around the world.

In the US, AARP leads the Age-Friendly Network and there are currently 5 States, 1 Territory and 500 Age-Friendly communities. California has been experiencing a growth in Age-Friendly efforts and the City of Fremont has joined 40 other Californian cities engaged in this effort. In April 2019, Alameda County joined the Network.

The Age-Friendly process is comprised of a 5-year cycle. The City of Fremont joined the effort in 2017. The first years are focused on community involvement and engagement in identifying issues and a vision for the future. Next, an action plan is developed that outlines tangible goals for moving towards that vision. Once the action plan is finalized, its implementation is monitored by the city and community to ensure accountability. After the first five year cycle is complete, it begins again with collecting community input.

The City of Fremont will use this Action Plan as a working document to guide our progress towards an Age-Friendly community for all residents.
